ARLINGTON FINANCE COMMITTEE NAMES OFFICERS FOR YEAR

The Arlington Finance Committee has been re-organized for the ensuing year with only a few changes in its personnel.

Ernest W. Davis, chairman of the committee; Harold M. Estabrook, vice chairman and Arthur O. Davidson, secretary, have all been re-appointed.

The sub-committee on Schools and Libraries was re-titled, Schools, Libraries, Health, Planning Board and Cemeteries. William J. Atwood is chairman and the other members are Arthur O. Davidson and John L. Murphy. On the sub-committee on Departments of Selectmen and Incidents Harold M. Estabrook remains chairman. John E. Mitchell of Precinct 7 succeeds Henry J. Welch of the same precinct as a member. The others are George T. Hagerman and Daniel W. Flynn.

On the Public Works and Parks Committee, Francis A. O'Hearn of Precinct 3 succeeds Arthur C. McCarthy. D. Herbert Buttrick remains chairman and the third member is Thomas G. Smith. In the title of "Joint Board and All Other Departments," the "all" is omitted this year. The personnel of the committee remains the same—Archibald C. Loveys, chairman; Edward D. Buckley and Joseph C. Ohlund.

Gas Employees Enjoy Party In Arlington Club

A very successful dinner dance Employees' Association this week was held by the Arlington Gas at the Middlesex Sportsmen's Association Clubhouse.

A very gay throng, consisting of members and their guests, enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner among very attractive surroundings.

President Joseph P. Greeley welcomed the officials of the Northeastern District of the New England Power Association who were the honored guests of the evening. They were John West, M. B. Webber and E. H. Lother.

At the close of the dinner excellent entertainment was provided. Dancing with music by Robert Ahearn's Royal Commanders brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

Young People Present Fine Concert Here

The young people of the Park Avenue Congregational Parish House, Arlington Heights, presented its annual concert last evening.

With the aid of a number of more mature musicians, they presented a Mozart Overture (Don Juan), a Schubert Symphony (The Fifth) and a Beethoven Concerto (the well-known Emperor Concerto). The piano soloist was Alan Scott Hovaness, better known here as Alan Chakmakjian. The conductor was Harry I. Tinkham, whose ability has long been recognized both by musicians and the interested public.

Arlington young people who belong to this orchestra are Bernadine and Virginia Brooks, Bernice Hayes, Blanche McAuliffe, Isabel Conklin, Christine Thatcher, Alice Brenton, Aaron Blau, Harvey Robinson, Dorothy Evans, Grant Joslin, Parcell and Louise Lester, Phyllis Nelson, Clare Waterfall, Alexander Davidson. They are assisted by friends from neighboring towns.

The concert is under the management of Mrs. Horace Hardy Lester.

Arlington Man To Marry In Distant City

Local Pastor To Broadcast

Rev. Laurence L. Barber, pastor of the Orthodox Congregational Church, will conduct the "Morning Watch" from Radio Station WNAC in Boston each morning of the week of May 2 to 7 inclusive. This is a fifteen minute devotional service under the auspices of the Boston Young Men's-Christian Association. The time of the service is from 7.30 until 7.45. Each morning Mr. Barber will give six or seven brief addresses. The themes for the week will be as follows:

Monday, May 2, "The Lost River"; Tuesday, May 3, "The Powers of the Coming Age"; Wednesday, May 4, "The Broken Cisterns"; Thursday, May 5, "The Path in the Sky"; Friday, May 6, "A Modern Home Problem"; Saturday, May 7, "A Message for Mother's Day."

HELD FOR REPAIRS!

A tricycle which was sent to a Franklin street shop in Arlington for repairs has disappeared along with the operator of the shop. Mrs. Hanlon of Bedford road, Lincoln, reported to the Arlington police yesterday that the tricycle had been brought here for repairs but the concern had moved away and she was unable to locate the owner.

Alert Officer Right On Job In Arlington

The Arlington police force is generally considered to be right on the job and officer William Colbert definitely proved this last night.

It so happens that on April 22, the State police reported a Nashua sedan, bearing the New Hampshire registration plate number 53344, was stolen.

Last night, the car came along Massachusetts avenue and officer Colbert spotted the number. Like a flash, the officer stopped the car. The operator was brought to police headquarters where he was able to make satisfactory explanations. He gave his name as Ralph Lemire, 171 Main street, Nashua and told police he had borrowed the car from its owner who happened to be a friend. Investigation by police brought the fact that the car had been recovered on April 23 but this had not been reported to the local police.

Colbert was congratulated for his remarkable memory and quick thinking. The driver was released.

Cyrus Dallin's Works Attract Arlington Folks

Arlington people are paying considerable attention to the exhibit of Cyrus Dallin's work in the small gallery at the Robbins Memorial Library in Arlington.

The famous sculpturer is a resident of Arlington. This exhibit of his work is the last of a series sponsored by the Art Committee of the Arlington Woman's Club.

Especially interesting are the portrait busts. These include "My Father," "My Mother," "Chief Joseph, Nez Percé," and the charming children's heads—"Jimbo," "Lawrence," and "Arthur." A bas relief of Menotomy, the Indian of the fountain in the Town Hall Park, is used in two plaques, one for the Eastern Archery Association and the other for the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs. Familiar to lover of Dallin's work are the "Crusader" and the "Prayer for the Return of the Buffalo."

Everything is set for the impressive ceremony which will attend the planting of the Washington Bicentennial elm by the Menotomy Chapter, D. A. R., on the grounds of the Jason Russell House this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Franklin P. Hawkes will give the special address for the occasion and the tree will be accepted by Judge Parmenter, president of the Arlington Historical Society.

Following the planting of the tree, buglers from the Boy Scout and Girl Scout corps will participate. It is expected that several hundred people will attend the simple but impressive ceremony.

ADD ODD THEFTS!

A new variety of thieves have been discovered!

Body of David Heinrich Is Dragged From Spy Pond —Identified By Father Who Awaited Nearby— Funeral To Be Tomorrow—Number of Searchers Increased — Fire Department Assists With Powerful Searchlights Last Night — May Dive Or Use Dynamite To Find Other Bodies

Another chapter to the tragic drama which has become the center of discussion among the entire community was added yesterday afternoon when police recovered the body of David Heinrich, 15-years-old, from the waters of Spy Pond. Heinrich was one of the three missing East Arlington junior high school boys who disappeared following a canoe ride on Spy Pond last Monday morning. The body was recovered at 2.45 p. m. and immediately identified by the lad's father Oscar Heinrich, 61 Newcomb street, who had been watching the dragging operations from the Middlesex Sportsmen's clubhouse on the shore of the pond.

Dr. Currier examined the body after it had been identified by the father and allowed it to be removed to Smith's undertaking establishment. Funeral services will take place in the Calvary Methodist Church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dr. William Shaw, pastor of the church will officiate and burial will be in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Arlington. The youth, a native of Arlington, is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar R. Heinrich and one sister, Frances.

The body was brought from the water by police officer Thomas E. Burns. Officer Raymond L. McLane was in the boat with officer Burns at the time. These two men along with officers Keefe and White had been assigned to the job at two o'clock and had been grappling only a short time when they discovered the body. It was found about a hundred feet from Wyman's point. The news of the recovery of one body brought several hundred people to the shores of Spy Pond where they remained for the rest of the day and last evening. Among the spectators at the pond was William O. Hauser, chairman of the board of selectmen who assisted Police Chief Archie F. Bullock in directing the dragging operations.

Practically assured that Gina Santoliquido, 16, of 78 Harlow street and John Vogel, 15, of 72 Thorndike street, both of whom disappeared with Heinrich last Monday have met the same fate, police redoubled their efforts to find their bodies yesterday afternoon and evening. The detail of men dragging the pond was increased and the work was not given up until shortly after ten o'clock last night.

In order to facilitate the dragging last night, Chief Bullock, with the cooperation of Chief Daniel B. Tierney of the fire department, secured the special service fire truck which made it possible to use powerful searchlights with which the truck is equipped, during the dragging operations after dark last night. The truck was brought to the shores of the pond and generated power for the strong floodlights which helped the workers considerably. Captain Lorne S. McEwen, lieutenant John Tierney, Del Mahoney and Eddie Lane of the fire department were detailed to the work at Spy Pond from eight until 10.15 o'clock last night. The bodies of the other two boys were not recovered, however.

Dragging operations were resumed this morning at nine o'clock with police officers J. Ryan, Curran, Scannell, Riley, Olson, Merritt, Colbert and Donovan, under the supervision of Sergeant Albert Ryan, assigned to the task. They will continue to comb the pond until the other two bodies are recovered. It is necessary, dynamite will be used to bring the bodies to the surface this afternoon. It is also possible that an expert diver, who offered his services yesterday afternoon, will go to the bottom of the pond in an effort to locate the bodies.

In the meanwhile, some people contend that the two other boys may have run away from the pond after their companion had gone out in the canoe alone and that their bodies are not in the pond. It is now only a matter of hours before this theory definitely proves to be true or false.

LOCAL D. A. R. CHAPTER TO PLANT ELM TODAY

Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole Busy In Month of May

May promises to be a busy month for Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole of Brockton who will visit several of the mid-Atlantic states in her official capacity as first vice president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. She will return home the last of May just in time to set forth with the "Poole Special," June 4, for the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at Seattle where she will be presented as unopposed candidate for national president.

Mrs. Poole will be presented for a three-year term, provided a certain amendment goes through limiting the presidential office to one three-year term, instead of two two-year terms which other presidents have served. It is understood that both Mrs. Poole and Mrs. John P. Sips, retiring executive, are heartily in accord with the proposed change.

Mrs. Poole will be guest speaker, May 5, at the annual banquet of Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs in Sandusky. On May 12, she will speak at the banquet of the Universalist state convention in Waltham.

Mid-May will take her to West Virginia to give afternoon and evening addresses, May 17, in Huntington before the annual convention of the West Virginia Federation. The following day she will be the guest of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs at their annual meeting in Owensboro. Returning north she will reach Swampscott for the final day of the Massachusetts convention May 21, at the New Ocean House.

She will attend a district conference the morning of May 26 at Lonsdale, Pa., and in the afternoon speak at another conference in Bywood, Pa. That evening she will be guest speaker of the Federation annual banquet in Rehoboth, Delaware. Then she will return the following day to Pennsylvania to address a conference banquet in Philadelphia.

Might As Well Buy Place, Court Told

John L. (Spot) Carberry of Medford street, Malden, released
Thursday from the state farm, fell into the tolls again yesterday morning and was locked up on a drunk charge. At court the case was placed on file and he was ordered committed to the State Farm again for violating his parole.

"I'm going to buy that place," declared Carberry to the judge after sentence had been passed.
The judge as well as spectators were moved to laughing. Carberry has been committed to the State Farm probably no more times than any other Malden man, and he has a regular job there in the kitchen.

Tennis Season At Jackson College

The tennis season opens at Jackson College May 6, when the varsity team will meet Wheaton at Wheaton College. Although only four veterans are back this year they represent the best material of last year's team. They are: Ruth A. Behrend, '33, South Manchester, Connecticut; Alex-
a M. MacKinnon, '32, Belmont; Eileen M. Campion, '33, Ware; and Sylvia Parker, '32, Lynn.

Three additional members of last year's squad are out for practice again this year. They are:
Adele F. Clark, '32, West Medford; Doris A. Chase, '32, Brockton; and Esther E. Burnham, '32, Gloucester.

The following have turned out for practice this year for the first time at Jackson College:
Adele J. Blum, '33, Patchogue,
New York; Alma N. Strout, '33,
Lynn; Isabelle M. L'Heureux, '32, Ware; Ruth M. Boulton, '33, Melrose Highlands; Priscilla Ballou,
'35, West Newton; Miriam O.
Pace, '34, Woodville, N. H.

The team is under the management of Evelyn E. Wheeler,
'32, Rochester, New York, and Miss Reba M. Coe, of the Department of Physical Education, is coach.

Omiron Chapter To Hold Mother's Day Tea

Kappa Sorority at Jackson, Department for Women at Tufts college, will hold a Mother's Day
Tea on Sunday, in the Chapter Rooms at the College, from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Ruth E. Malone, '33, Mount Kisco, New York, is chairman of the committee responsible for the affair, and is being assisted by Elizabeth Berry, '34, Winchester;
M. Louise Ryan, '34, Swampscott; and Dorothy L. Crockett, '34, Springfield.

Eloise Calkins, '34, Abington, is in charge of a tea to be given on May 8, by Lambda Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta, at the home of Mrs. E. Baker, a patroness of the sorority. Mrs. Irene Dillon, '34, Ware, and Willette C.
Pierce, '33, Reading, are also on the committee for this Mother's Day Tea.

—Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gingsas of Forest street have returned home from Holton, Me., after spending last week there on a business trip.

SYMPATHY

We read of may "lips" and "clues"
In finding Lindy's boy,
And still await the biggest news,
That will bring the whole world joy.

We like to think where'er he is,
Be that on land or sea,
That God is watching over him,
No greater friend have we.

The suffering of his parents dear,
No pen can e'er portray,
In simple rhyme and verse to them,
Our sympathies convey.

We represent the multitude,
Who read the daily news,
Kidnappers will not bother us,
We wear the poor-man's shoes.

"Sweet land of Liberty," we sing,
We've loved that native anthem,
We could not sing it quite so loud
If our babies went for ransom.

Forgive them, Lindy, for this crime,
They know not what they do, Achievements such as you have made,

Bring off our hats to you.
By Estelle M. Clough,
206 Fellows West,
Medford.

Place of Bulgaria In World Peace

A meeting of the Women's League of the West Medford Congregational church was held on Wednesday afternoon in the vestry. The President, Mrs. Lilla M.
White, led the devotional exercises and a short business meeting followed.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of the Department of Social Relations. Mrs. Elsie Powers Corwin, chairman. Owing to Mrs. Corwin's absence the president introduced the speaker, Miss Vera Tsakova. Miss Tsakova is a graduate of the Native Christian College, Bulgaria, of the Schaffer International College, Cleveland, Ohio, and is now a graduate student in Boston University. Her subject was the "Place of Bula-garia in World Peace" and she sketched in an illuminating way, the background of her country in the Balkan Peninsula, its relation to surrounding countries, and the big powers of the world, the Macedonian question, war and reparations. Briefly, she told of the great restlessness there and of its causes—largely due to the feeling that the rest of the world is unjust and unfair to the Bula-garians. The people are tired of war and are looking toward world peace.

Miss Tsakova then presented a concise outline of the steps her country is taking in this direction. First, it joined the League of Nations and by this act was enabled to avoid war with Greece in 1925. Then an educational system was inaugurated to teach children the value of peace. A third step in this forward looking movement is the treatment which is being accorded the minorities among the people as the government gives them perfect freedom to practice their own religions, use their native language and maintain their own names.

The influence of the press is also felt as Bulgarian newspapers and magazines are now devoting a great deal of space to the subject of peace. Perhaps, however, the most important and unique move in this direction is the obligatory labor system, taking the place of compulsory military training. Every youth of eighteen serves the state for a certain period of time in some constructive work, every adult does his share and even the school children have their part. In this way, physical training and the labor of the country is subsidized.
In other words, they work instead of fight for their country.

At the conclusion of Miss Tsakova's talk tea was served by Circle
Three.

Starting Meals Right

Appetizer Course Adds to Enjoyment of Entire Menu
THE difference between a commonplace meal and an excellent meal often depends on the first course, the hors-d'oeuvres. When dinner starts with an attractive, luscious appetizer, the stage is set for thorough enjoyment of every course.
There is nothing difficult about preparing hors-d'oeuvres. Just ordinary condiments and pickles are needed in order to add the smart, restful touches that make these luscious appetizers.
For the simple dinner, hors-d'oeuvres of two or more kinds may be attractively arranged on a salad plate and placed on the table.
Home Style Hors-d'oeuvres
Place cooked beets in small rings.
In the center of each ring place a selection of two or more kinds of sweet mixed pickles.
Fruit Hors-d'oeuvres
Arrange slices of pineapple for the base. On top of the pineapple place a slice of orange, and on top of the orange a section of sliced sweet dill pickle.
Stuffed Eggs
Remove yolks of hard-cooked eggs. Mash yolks with butter and finely chopped sour mustard pickles.
Fill whites with this mixture. Garnish with pimiento strips.
Roquefort Relish Hors-d'oeuvres
Mash with a fork an individual portion of roquefort cheese. Combine with an equal amount of sweet pickle relish. Spread on firm slices of tomato, and sprinkle with paprika.
Cabbage-Cheese Hors-d'oeuvres Cut green pepper into rings. Inside of the pepper rings place small mounds of cabbage salad mixed with grated cheese and prepared mustard. Add French dressing.
Tuna-Pickle Canape
Combine shredded tuna fish with enough mayonnaise to moisten. Season with onion juice and paprika.
Spread on toasted bread cut into fancy shapes. Garnish with dill pickle cut into thin slices, or thin crosswise sections of dill pickles cut into fancy shapes.
Egg and Pickle Canape
Make a paste of finely chopped hard cooked eggs and mayonnaise.
Season with salt, mustard and paprika. Spread on toasted bread cut into fancy shapes. Garnish with small, sweet gherkins, thinly sliced.

Zwieback Pie
Is Colorful
And Novel

ASTRY cooks, marvelous as their creations
are, often sigh
for something entirely original and completely different, with which to startle
the family or guests. And there are those, pastry-making being an art, who are still trying to achieve rich flaky crust, and would shout with joy to find something giving the effect of pastry, and yet not so difficult.
The recipe given here satisfies both expert and beginner—is sure to surprise and please those to whom it is served. Zwieback pie! The very name suggests the flavors and colors of fine German cookery.
The recipe when tested produced a fine golden brown crust—just like the beauty of the zwieback itself; and bright yellow cream filling in contrast to the white meringue, decorated with zwieback mixture on the top. The cream filling, always a success with evaporated milk, provides the exactly right consistency. Be careful not to overcook the filling.

"Putting Health into Waffles"

By Jane Rogers
WHETHER for breakfast, luncheon, tea or dinner, everyone likes them. Piping hot and golden brown waffles, spread generously with butter, cinnamon-sugar, marmalade or whatever the palate may dictate, or heaped with chicken à la king, lobster à la Newburg or something else more substantial, always present the most appetizing of pictures. And the chilly days of fall and winter are when this dish enjoys its greatest popularity.
A new recipe that brings a different and delicious flavor to waffles, and that at the same time helps take care of what doctors agree is our most common dietary fault, is finding favor rapidly.
The progressive refinement and softening of foods which has produced our "civilized" diet has meant in some cases the almost complete elimination of the bulky, regulatory foods that keep the body in good running order. Bran long has been recognized as one of the most valuable of these foods.
Some of the reasons have been discovered just recently by laboratory investigators. Containing minerals and proteins, bran also is particularly rich in Vitamin B, which improves the muscular tone of the intestines. At the same time it is a rich source of iron.
Here is the new recipe that is so well liked and that really contains all these scientifically-proven merits:
Sift 1 1/2 cups of flour, one teaspoon of salt, 1/2 tablespoon of sugar, and 4 teaspoons of baking powder together; add 1/4 cup of all-bran, 2 well beaten eggs, 1 1/2 cups of milk and 4 tablespoons of melted shortening. Beat well and bake in hot waffle iron.
Simple. Delicious. And good for everyone.

Sandwiches and Soup Are Ideal Lunches for Spring Work Days

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Helix Food Institute

SANDWICHES, accompanied by a bowl of soup or hot beverage, are ideal for luncheon. Made of meat—often left from last night's dinner—or with a foundation of cheese, eggs, Spanish-Olives or Peanut Butter on toasted or plain bread, they may be of one, two or three layers, or served in sandwich buns. Sandwiches offer variety, and during the next few weeks when housewives are busy with Spring work, the sandwich lunch is practical. Suggested below are sandwiches guaranteed to appeal—and they are easy to prepare, too!
Luncheon Frankfurter Rolls: Cook 1 pound frankfurters in boiling water until tender. Cool, remove skin, and put through food chopper with 1/2 cup Sweet Mustard Pickles;
add mustard sauce from the pickles (about 2 tablespoons) and 3 tablespoons Mayonnaise Salad Dressing to form a moist sandwich filling. Cut tops from round rolls, scoop out part of center, butter rolls and fill generously with meat mixture. Replace tops and serve.
For a packed lunch, wrap each sandwich in waxed paper.
Olive Club Sandwiches: Toast slices of bread 1/4 inch thick until an even golden brown. Butter lightly and let cool slightly. Spread with thick Mayonnaise Salad Dressing. On half of the slices place lettuce leaves and cover with Stuffed Spanish Olives, sliced. On remaining toast, arrange slices of broiled bacon. Put together and garnish with watercress.
Hot Minced Ham Sandwich: Chop
1/4 pound boiled or baked ham finely and sprinkle it on slices of buttered toast. Pour over toast and ham the following sauce: Melt 2 tablespoons butter in saucepan, add 2 tablespoons flour and stir until well blended. Add 1 cup milk and cook until well thickened. Add 2 tablespoons Sweet Gherkins, chopped. This makes a delicious creamy sauce to be poured over toast spread with ham. Cover with a second layer of toast and ham and more sauce. Garnish at one side with a pickle fan made by cutting very thin parallel slices almost the length of Sweet Gherkins, then spreading out the sections to make a fan.

GOLD FROM INDIA

"Few people realize that during the past few months India has been restoring gold to the world at a rate far in excess of the annual world production of new gold," says an editorial in the Deposit, New York Courier. "This movement, if continued, may well assume the proportions of major importance as affecting the monetary standards of the future."

"In selling their gold the masses of India will undoubtedly absorb an increasing amount of silver. The desire to hoard some precious metal has not left the Oriental—he is probably acting for the immediate profit. However, this movement may well become an important factor in gradually restoring the normal relationship between the value of silver and gold."

The movement in India is the result of the fiscal policy of the Indian government, and the abandonment of the gold standard by Great Britain. In 1926, India adopted the gold standard, based on a rupee value of 36 cents; before that she had had the silver standard, and a 32-cent rupee. To support the new standard, she had to buy gold and sell silver. When Great Britain went off the gold standard this was no longer necessary, and the increase in value of gold made selling advantageous.

All over the world the need for a fair relation between the values of gold and silver is becoming more apparent. The people of the world will be behind any movement to achieve this. International action is essential. The rehabilitation of silver will do much to stimulate international trade and offset depression and industrial paralysis in many countries.

SOMETHING WORTHWHILE

More than 60 New England manufacturers, representing all New England's major industries, have already arranged with the Industrial Committee of the New England Council to exhibit new products, in the ballroom of the Hotel Copley-Plaza, on Wednesday, May 4.

The display of new products, which is open to the Arlington public in connection with New Products Day, a conference on the development, testing and marketing of new products by New England Industries, which is being conducted by the Council Industrial Committee at the Copley-Plaza.

Many of the New England manufacturers who attend the New Products Day conference on May 4 will also be present on May 3 at Research Day, when interested business men, as guests of the New England Council, will be shown the industrial research laboratories of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

New Products Day, Research Day, and the display of new products have been arranged by the New England Council in recognition of the increasing interest in development of new products shown by New England industry as a whole. The extent to which New England manufacturers are turning to new products to meet the challenge of depressed business conditions was first revealed by the results of the Council's "expression ballot" issued in the winter of 1931-32. Nearly half the 853 business executives replying reported reliance on new products as a source of increased earnings in 1932.

HEALTH EDUCATION

"The general level of child care can be raised materially through educational methods," says Reynold E. Luhn, Executive Director of the Community Welfare League of Holyoke. "I would advocate a continuous educational campaign through such media as the schools, the press and the pulpit, as probably the best means of helping parents to do a better job in bringing up their children."

"At the present," added Mr. Luhn, "I would concentrate on nutrition. I believe that as concerns the future, nothing is more important now than to provide lunches in the schools, including milk, to undernourished children, who are rapidly increasing in numbers, and to stress the need for communities to provide the unemployed with means to nourish their children properly."

Mr. Luhn's views are in harmony with the general purpose of May Day-Child Health Day this year, as expressed by the American Child Health Association. This is: To focus the spirit of this year—which is the spirit of unselfishness, of sharing, of responsibility towards our neighbor—upon the needs of children in order that each child may be sheltered in its own home and share secure family life during 1932; that each child may have the essential food elements in each day's diet during 1932; that each child may have an adequate amount of clean and safe milk in 1932; that each child may have plenty of sunshine, sleep, rest and recreation; and that each infant in 1932 may be born healthy, of a healthy mother who will live to love her child and take care of her family.

The Spotlight on Arlington Sports
By Bob Forest

Well it looks like the Arlingtonone that got on base would High team is a lot better than score. Well I hope I'm around when the battle is on.

Yesterday's warm weather brought out a record crowd to the Pond courts, but as there were only three finished many were disappointed. The new surface on the courts is taking a little longer than was expected but is worth it as the players who were on the courts yesterday say there is a hundred percent improvement.

In an attempt to revive the interest of baseball in the town. The Daily News will print all challenges sent in by teams who are looking for games. The letters should contain age, time the game is wanted, where it may be played, and guarantee if any. Letters should be addressed to Baseball Editor, Arlington Daily News, 27 Mystic street.

Daddy Sunshine Club Rules

1. Be kind and helpful to others.
2. Look both ways when crossing streets.
3. Always be kind to dumb animals.
4. Write a letter to Daddy Sunshine, or have Mother or Dad write it for you, every now and then.
5. Try to bring a "Ray" of Sunshine into the lives of your parents and others every day of the week and every week of the year.

These rules are not very difficult for good girls and boys to keep. Most of them are kept by them anyway. Mail your letters and stories to Daddy Sunshine, in care of this paper. He will answer them in the Daddy Sunshine Column.

Write on but one side of the paper, and place your age and address on the letter after your name. Give the day, month and year of your birth.

To join the club all you have to do is promise to keep the rules—and keep them.

From Baby Kay

Dear Daddy Sunshine:

As I have not written to you for a long, long time, I thought I would write and tell you what I am doing.

I go to Mrs. Kunzer's Private school and there are fourteen children there, and I like it very much. I am not old enough to go to the regular school as yet. I will go to regular school in the fall. I hope I will go into the second grade as Phyllis did when she went to school. She went to Mrs. Kunzer's also. Mrs. Kunzer prepares the children for the second grade. I will be six years old Oct. 4, 1932. Now to tell you where I have been dancing lately. Last week I danced in many places. We went to Malden, Lynn, Arlington and Salem.

Next week I am dancing in Lynn again. Phyllis and I do a dance together. It is an adagio dance and we receive lots of applause. A man over at the entertainment in Malden said Phyllis and I must be made of elastic. I have also been on the radio with the KVO Kiddies reue.

Last Saturday Mr. Babson came down to the studio to see the children broadcast and he said we were very clever little artists. He asked Miss O'Hara if she would let us broadcast every Wednesday at 4:30 and every Saturday at 11:30.

We enjoyed our broadcasting immensely.

Mr. Babson is the owner of WBSO and he is a very fine old gentleman. So you see Daddy Sunshine, we will be on the air Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Next week Mrs. Kunzer is giving us a week's vacation, but I wish she wasn't, as I like to go to school very much. We go from 9 till 12. I will now close, trying to spread lots more sunshine around, closing, hoping you are well.

I am as ever one of your little Sunshiners,
Baby Kathleen McGonagle, 44 Logan park,
Medford, Mass.

P. S. I enjoy your broadcast on Monday evenings very much.

Thanks Baby Kay, for a very nice letter. Daddy Sunshine is indeed happy because you have not really forgotten him. You certainly are doing your bit in spreading Sunshine. In fact your whole family have done more than their share in this respect and Daddy Sunshine fully realizes it. He is also glad to learn you are broadcasting twice a week now. It is kind of Mr. Babson to take such an interest in you, but who wouldn't after seeing and hearing your "gang."

President Monroe

Dear Daddy Sunshine:

Nearly everyone in the club is writing about Paul Revere and have not written about James Monroe.

But I will write a puzzle before I write about his life.

BOYS

Aaabrr Nhoahyt
Ijoarrr Nhoahyt
Eluolr Nhoahyt

This is the story of James Monroe our fifth president. James Monroe was born on the 18th of April, 1758. His father was a planter who had a fine estate on Monroe Creek. This stream emptied into the Potomac River. When he was sixteen he went to the famous William and Mary college. When he was eighteen the Declaration of Independence was signed. The event of the Revolution was too exciting for him to stay in school. So he left school and enlisted in Washington's army. After the war was over he studied law. In 1782, he was elected to the Assembly of Virginia and was made a member of the Governor's Council. The next year he was elected to the Continental Congress.

He soon fell in love and married in 1786. President Washington sent Monroe to France as United States Minister. When he returned to America he was made Governor of Virginia. Soon after he was chosen Secretary of State. On March 4, 1817 he was elected President of the United States. He had been elected by the Democratic party. He died on the fourth of July, 1831. Hope I win a ticket.

Yours truly,
Billy Glynn

Thanks Billy. Your letter was most welcome. Letters giving brief outlines of the great men who served our country are always welcome. Write again soon.

This Week With The Arlington Boy Scouts

The Metropolitan Division will hold its annual meeting May 3, from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. of Cedar Hill, Waltham. Luncheon for fifty cents will be served at 12:30. All interested in going may make reservations at Scout headquarters this week from Mrs. Towne. Mrs. Joseph Merritt, chairman of the Regional Committee, will speak in the afternoon, also Scout Winifred L. Turner, who has chosen for her topic "The Service of One Woman to Humanity."

Troop 9 was disappointed in not being able to have its picnic outdoors in Menotomy Rocks Park on Tuesday, but had weather prevented. However, the girls enjoyed a very good time at Scout headquarters. Yesterday the troop visited the Hall of Flags at the State House. The girls ate their lunch on the Common and in the afternoon visited the library and the National History Museum.

The English folk dance committee of the Massachusetts Girl Scouts are giving a party in the Big Barn at Cedar Hill on April 30, from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. As the numbers are limited those girls who are familiar with the dances listed here are invited to attend. If any girls wish to go please notify Mrs. Towne before Wednesday of next week. The required dances are Galopade, Black Nag, Gathering Peascods, Long Eight, The Pleasures of the Town, We Won't Go Home 'Til Morning. There will also be group singing and refreshments.

The Arlington Girl Scout Orchestra has been invited to play for this program and all members are asked to make a special effort to be present next Thursday afternoon.

In the spring, hikes and walks become more and more popular and Girl Scouts are asked to heed the following suggestions. When you walk, go singly or by twos on main highways and keep to the left of the road. Groups are urged to stay together and not to straggle along one by one. Trespass signs should be obeyed. Gates found closed should be left closed and flowers left for others to admire. Avoid walking through cultivated fields, orchards, gardens, ploughed land or lawns; fruit is private property. In some places it is against the law to accept or ask for rides, but it is most unwise to do it at any time.

When meals are to be cooked outdoors, Scouts are advised to plan simple dishes that are easily meal properly, and to clean up prepared, to take time to eat the thoroughly afterwards so that no unsightly traces of the visit remain.

Clothing, which is old and comfortable, should be worn with broad toes and low heels.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 1.

The Golden Text is: "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness" (Galatians 6:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the seat of sinners, nor sitteth in the way of the scornful. . . . For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish" (Psalms 1:1, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin in the destruction of sin and the spiritual understanding that casts out evil as unreal. But the belief in sin is punished so long as the belief lasts" (p. 497).

The Adams School Parent-Teacher Association held its last meeting of the season Thursday evening, in the school hall, this being an open meeting and attended by a large number. The speaker was Miss Florence Tuttle, on "Modern Methods of Reading Languages."

The Concord Players will present "Little Women," in Cary Memorial Hall, on Saturday afternoon and evening, May 7, for the benefit of the Llewellyn Lodge, in Bedford.

The baseball field at the new Concord-avenue Playground is now being laid out. It is in the corner of the field nearest Concord avenue with the outfield just beyond the tennis courts. A first-class job is being done, the base lines being dug out and filled with cinders and the outfield regraded and loamed so that in about another season the place can be used for play. It is the intention of the town officials to erect a fence around the field before the grandstand is constructed.

The Italian Women's Auxiliary has chosen the following officers: Miss Mary F. Scarfo, president; Mrs. Marion Scarfo, vice president; Miss Lena Lania, recording secretary; Miss Angela Lisano, financial secretary; Mrs. Angelina Ballantoni, treasurer; Miss Jennie Scarfo, Miss Anna Piraiano and Mrs. Sarah Puleio, trustees; Miss Mary Velardi, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Mary Velardi, Miss Lena Cucinotta and Mrs. Angelina Ballantoni, publicity committee.

Miss Marilanna Collins, State deputy of the C. D. of A., paid an official visit to St. Elizabeth's Court Thursday evening. The meeting was attended by a large number. It was termed a "Sweet Night," and after the meeting the members enjoyed an illustrated lecture on sugar raising.

Homes of Beauty & Comfort

ATTACHED GARAGE SPECIAL FEATURE BARRINGTON HOME

Many new home builders are looking for plans of houses which have attached garage. The advantages of this type of construction are manifold, especially if the home is located in that section of the country where bleak winter prevails.

Here the attached garage is a decided advantage, as it enables the owner to leave and enter the car under shelter. At the same time the car is kept in a milder temperature so that the radiator will not freeze or the grease and oil thicken and harden.

The architectural design of the Barrington is attractive, being decidedly informal with its walls of brick, stucco and half timber. The broad expanse of roof is broken by dormers, valleys and hips. Asphalt shingles are stained to contrast effectively with the siding, and the result is a pleasing composition.

The entrance of the garage is at the front of the house, the garage being situated in the left wing. The arched stone entrance is at the extreme right, and effectively balances the center masses of brick and stucco.

Large window areas are planned to allow a flood of sunlight and fresh air to enter the interior. These window openings are situated at the side and rear of the house. The sash are casements, swing outward as though to welcome the sunshine and air. The small panes and slender muntins bars of the sash add texture and attractiveness to the composition.

The walls of the Barrington are well insulated, the plans calling for a material to ward off heat and cold. The insulation material chosen in this particular case was of the wall board type, although the blanket type would be equally effective.

This same insulating material is placed over the ceiling of the second floor to prevent the escape of heat into the attic. A large percentage of heat losses in the average house are through heat escaping into the attic, and the thoroughly insulated home will cut fuel bills approximately 15 per cent by the use of this material.

The footings and foundation walls of the house are concrete blocks. For fire protective purposes, cement block walls are placed between the garage and the living room of the house. The ceiling of the garage is also covered with the most stringent insurance end with fire resisting wall.

Planting Evergreens

For all varieties of evergreens spring is a favorable season for transplanting. They can be moved with little setback up to the time when new shoots are starting, and even later by experienced planters, though it is sometimes necessary to pinch off part of the new shoots which otherwise might wilt.

After being moved in the spring, an evergreen has a long period of favorable weather in which to become established. The hazards of the mid-summer heat and drought may be as great as those of a winter season, but it is easier for the garden owner to overcome them. The most common cause of loss in evergreens is dryness, and newly planted specimens should be watched during dry periods. The roots of any newly planted tree or shrub penetrate a relatively small section of soil, which may easily become dry. Until the plant has had time to develop new and longer roots, capable of foraging for food and moisture to a considerable distance, it needs special attention, and sometimes frequent watering. This applies to deciduous plants as well as evergreens.

Evergreens should be dug with a ball of earth about the roots, and this earth should be kept well moistened throughout shipping and planting and after planting. The shorter the time between digging and planting the better. If it is not convenient to water frequently after planting, a mulch of hay or straw will retard dryness and lessen the amount of water required.

The permanence of an evergreen in a given location depends upon the variety. Too often varieties are purchased because the buyer admires their appearance without careful inquiry being made as to their hardiness in the locality where they are to be planted. This a question upon which expert knowledge should be sought. In some sections only the hardiest varieties can be counted upon to survive; while in others there is a much wider choice, owing to more favorable soil and climatic conditions. In the East and South the beautiful broad-leaf evergreens, such as rhododendrons and azaleas, are available, which seldom succeed in the North-Central states.

Old fashioned Cape Cod Colonial Type House built by W. L. Roop, Medford Builder, located at 10 Aquavia road, Medford, completely furnished and open for public inspection.

The Cape Cod Colonial House, built by W. J. L. Roop, prominent Medford and Winchester builder and developer and located at 10 Aquavia road, Parkway terrace, Medford, is now open for public inspection. This house is completely furnished, and has all the latest conveniences to make housekeeping an easy problem.

The first floor, consists of living room, dining room, kitchen, breakfast room, hall clothes closet, and large extra lavatory with tiled floor. As with all old Colonial houses, the kitchen is located to the right of the entrance hall, adjoining is the breakfast room. The kitchen is very large, has built in cupboards, and one of the latest gas ranges is installed. Adjoining the kitchen, you find a charming breakfast room, overlooking the front lawn with sufficient light. Both kitchen and breakfast room have Armstrong inlaid linoleum on the floor. The dining room is located between the kitchen and living room. This room is large, has built-in china closet, and is tastefully decorated.

The extra large living room has a real old Colonial reproduction fireplace, built in book cases, Colonial lighting fixtures, side wall lamps over fireplace, and an old Colonial door leads to an outside flag stone terrace. The Colonial staircase, leading to the second floor is a reproduction of one in an old home in Brewster, Mass.

The second floor consists of a master bedroom, thirty by fourteen, two extra large cedar lined closets, with three drawers in each. There are seven windows in this room with three exposures, making it one of the most charming in the house. Two more bedrooms are on this floor, both with cedar closets, paneled birch doors, with old fashioned door knobs. All bedrooms are papered with old-Colonial style paper.
The bathroom is conveniently located, tiled in black and ivory tile and papered with an imported French waterproof paper, above the tiling, also has a clothes closet and adjustable shower. Ample wall outlets are in every room, together with built in Radio ground and antenna.
Large Basement
The basement is large, with cemented floor, laundry tubs, and hot water heater. The heating system is the hot water type. The plot of land contains 9700 square feet, and is well landscaped, a single car garage is provided. All betterments on this property are in and paid for and included in the purchase price of the house.
The furnishing of this lovely home was under the direction of Blanche Fitch Connolly, interior decorator and antique dealer of 50 El. street, Medford, who will be hostess to welcome the public. The home will be open each afternoon except Monday, also Wednesday and Sunday nights.
In selecting furniture to harmonize with the house, Miss Connolly chose the firm of Russell T. Hatch, 1 Washington street, Haymarket square, Boston, who have been serving the people of New England with quality furniture for nearly 20 years.
This house may be reached by driving up Fellsway West to Parkway terrace and Elm street. Aquavia road is the first street to the left from Elm street, and the house is the second on the left, number 10. Home owners and prospective home owners should not fail to view this house.
Out of forty-six houses built in this desirable and well located development, there remains but few which are offered to the public at prices ranging from $3500 up. Mr. Roop has a copyrighted, unique financial plan which makes it possible for a person desiring to own a home, to buy same with their rent dollars. He is willing at all times to assist in solving the home problem to meet the requirements of the individual.

WILL ASK REDUCTION IN ELECTRIC RATES MAY 4 AT STATE HOUSE HEARING

Mayor Burke has notified the aldermen that at the hearing before the State Utilities on May 4th relative to electric rates in Medford, he intended having City Solicitor Peters file a notice for a reduction in the present rates.

In a communication to the board, he requested that the aldermen take action in the matter. Alderman Prescott asked that as many of the aldermen as possible appear at the hearing on that date, and on his motion the letter from the mayor was placed on file without further action.

The mayor's letter to the board follows:

Gentlemen: Attached you will find a letter from the Department of Public Utilities regarding an investigation with respect to the rates of the Malden Electric Company, to be held on Wednesday, May 4th, at the State House in the hearing room of the Department of Public Utilities.

At that time I intend to have the City Solicitor file a notice for reduction in the present rates. Hoping that your Board may see fit to take action in this matter, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) John H. Burke, Mayor.

LIGHT REARRANGEMENT ON PLAYSTEAD ROAD IS TO BE MADE BY CITY

Rearrangement of the street lights on Playstead road in West Medford, as requested by Alderman Watson, has been approved by Mayor Burke, who has notified the aldermen that he has authorized the work done in accordance with the alderman's resolution and upon advice of Supt. of Wires Gaffney.

Four additional lights will be added to the present service at a cost of $74 per annum and some of the existing lights will be rearranged to give better satisfaction to the district.

The letter from Mayor Burke to the board, and from Supt. Gaffney to the mayor, are as follows:

Gentlemen: Be advised that I have this day authorized our Superintendent of Wires and Gas Fittings to make the necessary re-arrangement of street lights on Playstead Road as outlined in the Superintendent's letter of April 13, a copy of which is attached hereto.

This is in answer to Alderman Daniel B. Watson's resolution No. 35185 passed by your Honorable Board on March 31st.

Very truly yours,
John H. Burke, Mayor

Hon. John H. Burke, Mayor

In answer to resolution No. 35185 of the Board of Aldermen offered by Alderman Daniel E. Watson in regard to re-arranging and properly lighting Playstead Road, I would suggest that four additional lights be installed and the present lights re-arranged. This change would make an additional cost of Seventy-four Dollars per year.

The changes that I would suggest are to have lights installed on the following poles: Nos. 1989, 1991, 5652, 5952, 1911, and 1909; also 1 new pole and light at the beginning of center grass plot opposite Clewley road, and I would suggest that the lights on the following poles be discontinued: Nos. 1990, 1912, and 1910.

Awaiting further instructions in the matter, I am,
Yours respectfully,
(Signed) Henry A. Gaffney
Supt. of Wires and Gas Fittings

THIS IS A YEAR FOR PLANNING -NOT THEORIZING

Colby M. Chester, Jr., President, General Foods Corporation:

"The food industry is not doing much theorizing about the future; it is hard at work planning and mapping its course for the year."

Here are words from the head of a great business organization that can be taken to heart by other concerns, large or small.

In following the course mentioned by Mr. Chester, the first consideration is your financial standing.

By doing your banking business with a reputable institution, you strengthen your own financial reputation.

Each Vote At Primaries Cost 21 Cents

The total vote cast at the presidential primaries, in Medford, was 3840, out of a registration of 24,260, 151 less than the registration in ward 5.

The approximate cost of the election to the city is as follows: Election officers, $715.50; lights, $5.00; janitor service, in schools, $9.00; taxi, $5.00; trucking, $60.00; advertising, $24.00; call cards, $15.00; a total of $833.50.

Dividing the total $833.50 by 3840, the number of votes, gives 21 cents plus as the cost to the city for each vote cast.

The cost of preparing the voting list and the printing can not be figured in as that is an entailed expense each year.

Execution For $350 Claim Is Against City

For the payment of an execution of $350 secured against the city on a claim by Miriam J. Holden, the mayor has recommended an appropriation of that amount from current taxes. The recommendation has been sent to the finance committee.

The mayor's communication follows:

Gentlemen:

Enclosed herewith is a communication from the City Auditor, reporting payment of court execution to Miriam J. Holden in the sum of $350 in settlement of damages arising out of alleged personal injury.

It is recommended that your Honorable Board appropriate the sum of $350 for the account of "Claims", said sum to be raised out of taxes in the current year.

This matter has heretofore been the subject of action of your Honorable Board under Paper No. 33247 which authorized the settlement of this claim.

Very truly yours,
(signed) John H. Burke, Mayor.

Food Sale By

The proceeds of the sale are to be used to send members of the troop to Camp Coolidge. The committee is composed of Mesdames Paul Wild, Herman Baker, Frank Allen, Abbott Allen, Mary Haselton, William Clark, Joseph Adams and Helen D. Kelleher.

MYSTIC THEATRE

"The Impatient Maiden," with Lew Ayers and Mae Clark, an adaptation of Donald Henderson Clark's best-selling novel "The Impatient Virgin," heads the bill that opens at the Mystic Theatre in Malden today. "The Impatient Maiden" tells the story of a romance between Ayers and Miss Clark. The girl is secretary to a noted divorce lawyer and contemptuous of men because of the things she has learned in the office. Ayers and Andy Devine, a male nurse, become interested in Miss Clark and Una Merkel who are roommates. Loving not wisely but too well, Ayers and Miss Clark part through a misunderstanding, and the girl finally moves into a luxurious apartment in a building owned by her employer. It is at this point that the story takes a more serious turn, and dramatic incidents build up to a climax which is filled with suspense.

"The Girl of the Rio" with Dolores Del Rio and E. C. Carrillo as the stars, will be the second feature on the Mystic bill for Saturday. "Girl of the Rio" is a screen version of the stage hit "The Dove," in which the late Holbrook Blinn scored a triumph. Miss Del Rio is cast as a cafe entertainer in a typical Mexican border town. It is a particularly colorful role in view of the setting with its bustling industry of gambling games, vanqueros, cowboys and desperadoes at play and love with the inevitable hates and passions possible only in this type of resort. Leo Carrillo gives another of his great screen portrayals as the blustering boaster, Don Jose.

GRANADA THEATRE

"Tarzan of the Apes," based on the hair-raising story of jungle adventure by Edgar Rice Burroughs, will head the double bill that opens at the big Granada Theatre in Malden on Saturday. Johnny Weissmuller, world's champion swimmer, and considered to have one of the finest physiques of any man living, plays the title role of the strange white man who lives in the jungle like the apes. Prominent roles are played by Neil Hamilton, Maureen O'Sullivan and C. Aubrey Smith. The story, for the most part, is laid in the beast-infested Lake Albert region of Africa, and concerns the attempt of a party of English adventurers to find the "mysterious elephant's burying ground" where they hope to secure a fortune in ivory. The daughter of the leader is abducted by Tarzan, the Ape Man, who lifts her bodily from the ground and then carries her away beyond the reach of human hands by swinging through the tops of trees at dizzying heights. Their continually exciting and thrilling adventures with wild beasts, pygmies and other jungle terrors make this a picture which is said to contain even more hair-raising episodes than the celebrated "Trader Horn."

"The Expert," with Charles Moore, will be the second feature on the Granada bill that starts Saturday. In "The Expert," is again a lovable old man. It is quite different from his previous hit "The Star Witness," and every bit as fascinating. The support includes Lois Wilson, Earle Foxe, Ralf Harolde and Adrienne Dore.

—Frank McGinley of 830 Fells-way is planning to enlist on the Massachusetts Nautical Training ship, after graduation from Medford high school. Frank is chairman of the year book staff at the local high school.

Ely Club Plans
Activity In Every Ward

A meeting of the executive committee of the Ely club of Medford was held Thursday night at which the chairman of the club David J. McCarthy, presided.

Organization plans covering each ward of the city were adopted and a letter was read from State Auditor Francis X. Hurley thanking the club for its conduct of the Al Smith rally at the High school, and for their work on behalf of the Al Smith delegates on Primary day.

More than 250 applications for membership in the Ely club of Medford have been received and a large and enthusiastic membership seems assured. Application blanks are now being printed and the officers of the club are receiving applications.

The officers of the club are: David J. McCarthy, chairman; Aldermen Geo. P. Hassett and Maxwell S. Inman, vice chairmen; Aldermen John J. Bray, secretary; Aldermen James J. Nicholson, treasurer.

The next meeting of the Ely club will be held on May 9th, at Colonial hall.

Beat Wife
Because He Loved Her

Anthony DeMaio, 141 Pearl street, Malden was given a suspended term of six months in the house of correction with probation to Aug. 2 next year by Judge Davis at Court yesterday on complaint of his bride of six months, for assault. DeMaio said he hit his wife because he loved her and he claimed that she had been out with other men who told her a lot of things which turned yesterday morning at their home. DeMaio said that his mother died when he was a child and that as soon as he felt able he got married. He is about 17. Her folks are said to have returned to Italy and left her here. DeMaio said he wanted a home and that after they were married they got along pretty well, both working. Then she came home and told him about not caring for him. She went away the other day to work and he became suspicious. He went to the place and found that she was not working at that time. Yesterday morning he claimed his wife spoke about leaving him and he didn't want her to go, for he declared that he loved her and wanted to do all he could to please her. He said that she had some of her clothes packed to take away and that if the police wanted to they could go to the home and see the bag already packed. The wife claimed that he beat her from about 5.45 to eight o'clock, and that he had beaten her before on Tuesday. The wife stood on the witness stand with a drooped head and after court declared that she would live no longer with her husband.

John F. Keating, Melrose, drunk on file and committed to the State farm by revocation of a previously suspended sentence. John Davenport, Malden, drunk, also on file and returned to the farm.

Charles A. Lucier, Medford, drunk, house of correction, one month, suspended. A previously suspended term of 15 days was made operative.

Antonio P. Riccardi, Wakefield, aged 19, stubbornness, probation to Oct. 5.

For speeding in Malden the following were fined $5 each: Mildred F. Adams, Harding; Amedeo E. Berube, Lynn; Herbert M. Carr, Walpole; Clarence E. Dillon, Marblehead; William M. Gibson, East Weymouth; Randolph K. Martin, Cambridge; W. Howard Mills, Weymouth; Alton F. Tupper Jr., Brookline. For the same offence Morton F. Bird, Stoughton, was discharged. Harold A. Cross, Amesbury, continued, and M. Louise Reynolds, Middleton had her case filed.

Frederick W. Wachusen, 690 Salem street passing a red light at Broadway five corners had his case filed after a trial in which the evidence was given by Motorcycle Officer Kelley and Reserve-man Kelley.

Edward J. Bonner, Ballardvale, drunk and operating, Medford, fined $10 and $50 and appealed. Norman A. Hatch, a companion was fined $10 for drunkenness.

Edward Discoll, Everett, two counts of non-payment of wages, probation with order of restitution of $43 and $45.

Wakefield Children Receive Honors In Annual Poster Contest

Three pupils in St. Joseph's Parochial School of Wakefield, have received distinctive honors in the annual poster contest of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Louise Baril, Helen White, and Agnes Walsh, all members of the eighth grade, submitted posters in the contest and were awarded first second and third prizes, respectively.

Miss Baril will receive a bronze medal for her very excellent work. Miss White is awarded a silver medal, and Miss Walsh was given a year's subscription to the magazine issued by the society.

More than 70,000 children in various public and private schools of the state entered the competition, and the three honors coming to St. Joseph's School in Wakefield is a glowing tribute to the ability of the young artists and their instructors.

—John McNamara, graduate of Medford High school in 1929, is now employed on a ship making a tour of the southern states.

Attempted To Break Into
Apartment

An attempt to break into the apartment of Mrs. V. Neville in suite 27 of the Mulclaire apartments at 6 Brooks park, Thursday afternoon was frustrated by Mrs. Neville, who was at home at the time.

Someone rang the bell to the suite and Mrs. Neville answered it but the person at the other end failed to push the button which permits talking over the door telephone.

Apparently believing that no one was at home, the man went upstairs to the apartment door, inserted a key in the lock and was in the act of turning the key when Mrs. Neville turned the night lock.

The intruder ran downstairs and from the building.

Mrs. Neville supplied a description of the man. He was about 40, 145 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches tall, brown soft hat and brown tweed coat, wearing glasses.

Sgt. Cronin searched the district but failed to find any trace of the fellow.

Auto Fatalities
Have Increased
In Four Months

Automobile fatalities have increased five per cent in the first four months of the fiscal year 1932 over the same period a year ago, but exposure to accident has increased nearly 14 per cent in the same period, the Governor's committee on street and highway safety announced in reporting that the meteoric rise of the state actually are driving further without fatal accidents this year than they were a year ago.

Without attempting to belittle the fact that an increase in fatalities has been noted in the report of the Registry of Motor Vehicles for the first four months of the current fiscal year from December 1, 1931 to April 1, 1932, and that any increase in highway deaths, no matter how extenuating the circumstances, is to be combated with every possible weapon, the Governor's committee nevertheless believes that the actual increase in deaths this year when compared with the much greater increase in accident exposure is an encouraging sign and an indication that no means are being overlooked by the police and coordinated safety agencies of the state to keep fatalities within bounds.

The increased exposure to accident is considered surprising in view of the fact that there are some 45,000 fewer cars on the road this year than there were last, but indubitable proof of the increase lies in the gasoline consumption figures for the state as reported by the state department of corporations and taxation.

These figures show that during the first four months of the 1931 fiscal year (December 1, 1930 to April 1, 1931) the total amount of gasoline consumed in that period was 141,925,443 gallons. In the corresponding period this year (December 1, 1931 to April 1, 1932) the consumption was 152,168,544 gallons—an increase of more than 10,000,000 gallons.

Translated into mileage, using the nationally accepted figure of 12 miles to a gallon as the average for all vehicles, this means that motorists last year traveled a total of 1,603,105,316 miles in the first four months, while this year the total jumped to 1,826,022,528 miles—an increase of 222,917,212 miles, or 13.9 per cent.

The increase in deaths, according to figures from the registry of motor vehicles covering the same two periods, was shown in 225 fatalities for the first four months this fiscal year, as compared to 214, for the same period last year, an increase of 11—or 5.1 per cent.

Expressed in terms of miles per fatality for the two years, the 1932 record becomes even more favorable. With 225 deaths in 1,826,022,528 miles of driving, Massachusetts motorists this year are covering 8,115,655 miles for every fatality reported, as compared to only 7,491,146 miles for every fatality last year, an increase of 624,505 miles of safe driving for every death that occurs.
